

Dear Prime Minister's Office,

Please pass this on to the person who conducts Freedom of Information reviews.

I am writing to request an internal review of Prime Minister's Office's handling of my FOI request 'Meeting with Bill Gates 17th October 2024'.

I am very unhappy that you consider information discussed by a business man and the leader of our country is commercially sensitive. There should be nothing between the leader of our country whom we elect and a person who has companies that should be confidential as it has nothing to do with creating policy.

A full history of my FOI request and all correspondence is available on the Internet at this address:

Yours faithfully,

Adam Smith
